Wrong Capitalization under Asset Code -11000024 in PEGEPL

It has been observed that additional capitalization has been made for Rs 16,335 against the same asset code. Upon further scrutiny, it was noted that the entry does not pertain to the said asset code. During our inquiry with the concerned team to identify the correct asset code for this amount, we were informed that further verification is required, and the amount will be reclassified under the appropriate asset class upon confirmation.

Though there are comparative quotes from 2 customers, and the sale is made to H1 customer, the value seems to be still low on comparing the scrap value .i.e. bus unladen weight (3,630*35 = Rs 1.25 Lakhs approx.). The IA observed the sale of an old ramp in PEPPL, which had a net book value (NBV) of Rs. 1,27,367 as of 14th November 2024. The asset was sold as scrap on the same date. However, it was not in use for considerable period based on the images provided. Hence, this should have been written off much earlier. Further, the sale is asset is based on post facto	Possible under value Unfit assets are carried at book value Under or Over Depreciation Charge	Proper floor price to be fixed for used assets sale to ensure appropriate values fetch by the companies. Evaluation needs to be taken up on the assets which are not fit to use shall be taken up for written off as a prudent practice For all the second hand assets, there should be proper basis for assigning a different remaining useful life	The approval for sale of old ramp was received from MD during his plant visit on 14 Nov'24 verbally and sale was done on the same day, however the approval has been documented on 18 Nov'24 Physical verification is currently underway, during which non-functional assets are being identified, following which approval will be obtained for the write-off and subsequent disposal. DG Set – will be rectified

				Payroll Cost not capitalized in books of accounts as per IND AS.
8	APRI L-MAR' 25	FAM	PEL,PEPPL, PEIPL	IA noted that payroll costs amounting to INR 16.14 lakhs were capitalized in the month of Jun'24 towards PEGEPL 1GW module project. The employees were noted to be from production, maintenance, technical and utility departments. On further review, IA observed that payroll costs amounting to INR 5.11 lakhs for April 2024 and INR 8.40 lakhs for May 2024 were paid to employees from abovementioned departments, and hence the cost is directly attributable to creation of asset, however the same were not capitalized in books of accounts.	Risk of undervaluation of asset due to non-capitalization of interest cost. Risk of inaccurate financial reporting.	Strength en the process to maintain project-wise employee allocation on monthly basis to ensure accurate determination of payroll costs eligible for capitalization.

On discussion with the team, it was noted that there is no formal approval budget or board resolution in place at the time of commencement of the project. Also noted that an internal order (No: 1000442) was created in SAP for which an expenditure was incurred and accounted in books amounting to INR 36,98,852. But there is no budget allocated in SAP against the internal order. Further, purchase orders were created in the system against the vendors such as Craftsman Automation Ltd, Econstruct	Absence of budget approval may result on cost overruns. Absence of comparative quotes may result in higher procurement costs.	At the time of initiating the project, PPGPL was not yet operating on the SAP system. We have recently transitioned PPGPL to SAP, and as part of this migration, certain internal orders (IOs) were created before budget allocation processes were fully integrated. We acknowledge the gap and confirm that going forward, all internal orders will have proper budget allocation in SAP prior to incurring expenditures. We are also in the
